The Attitude of the President.

The Conservative Movement in Maryland.

Washington, D. C., August 18, 1888.

The President is represented as being exceedingly displeased at the reports made regarding his conversations with those gentlemen from New York who have been trying to reconcile him to the Seymour ticket. The very slight allusion in Democratic papers to his final promises to support their ticket has annoyed him to such a degree that prominent Democrats here assert that they would not be surprised at a positive break on his part with the Democrats, One of the latter class most intimate with Mr. Johnson, and one of his warm defenders, asserted to-day.

Although Governor Swann has kept interesting the program of the surprised in the month of the surprised in the most of the surprised in the most of the surprised in the president was not inclined to do the Democrats any good and could not be depended on for any party aid whattever.

NASHVILLE, 19 .- Exaggerated counts of a difficulty at Waynesburg, were published here this morning. Laterand more reliable information contradicts the report of the killing of 3 persons. No one was killed, but three citizens were wounded, one severely, and several horses killed. The following are the particulars: On Thursday last a number of persons in mask went to Wayne Furnsce, where some negroes had been drilling, and after consulting with the proprietor, they conferred with the leading negroes and advised them to quit drilling and give up their arms to the Superintendent of the Furnace to be turned over to the State. The negroes consented and the maskers left, and as they rode back through Waynesburg they were fired upon by the sheriff's possee, concealed in a stockade in town with the result above stated. They returned the fire and scattered. A meeting of citizens was held at Waynesburg Saturday, and protested against all violence and pledged themselves to peace measures.

Indian Outrages in Kaussa.

St. Louis, August 19.—Latest advices from Kausas are that the Indians have left. Solomon Valley and quiet is restored. Most of the settlers who were driven away are returning to their homes. Adjutant General McAfee reports eight persons buried, three missing and five wounded. This is probably less than half the actual casuaities. At least twenty persons have been killed, General Sully reports that two daughters of Aaron Bell were rescued from the Indians. About two hundred settlers are left destitute, having been stripped of provisions, clothing, bedding and everything else the Indians could carry away or destroy. Appeals have been made to the citizens of Leavenworth and other places to aid the sufferers.

Allegheny Cattle Market.

Allegheny Cattle Market.

Allegheny, August 18.

CATTLE.—The market yesterday was fully supplied, and in the absence of any large inquiry, was a rather heavy one. Not a single bullock was present from Illinois; the great proportion of the cattle on sale being from Ohio and Pennsylvania. The cattle plague excitement in this vicinity, now nearly died out, was attended by a strong feeling sgainst any cattle coming from Illinois, no matter how good they might be. The following were the ruling prices: Prime to extra butchers' cattle, 7½e7%c; good retailing cattle, 6½s8c; stock cattle, 3½s5c, and bulls, 2½s3½c. Shrep—There were but few prime fat sheep offered yesterday, but a plentiful supply of common and inferior. The market, taken altogether, was rather a hard one. Some few good fat sheep sold at from $3 50s4 per owt, while common and inferior sold from 2½s2c per pound, or from $1 50s2 50 per head.

Hogs—The demand for hogs at the present time is confined almost exclusively to the wants of the retail trade, and as a consequence the sales are limited to a comparatively small number. We quote 9½s10½c gross, as quotations in a retail way for good to prime heavy averages.
